N3/4/5 offered for Geography, History, Modern Studies and RMPS. At N3 and N4 level pupils are expected to complete three end of unit assessments across the course, and also an individual research project (AVU). At N5 level pupils are expected to complete an 80 mark exam lasting 2 hours 20 minutes, and also an assignment. The combined mark will determine their overall grade.
Higher offered for Geography, History, Modern Studies and RMPS. For each subject, pupils will sit two exam papers and also complete an assignment. The combined mark will determine their overall grade.

Offered in History and Modern Studies. Pupils will be expected to complete a three hour exam and a 4000-5000 word dissertation.

Pupils complete three units from across the curriculum with a Scottish focus: Tourism in Scotland, Social Inequality and Physical Geography. Pupils also have to complete an individual research project for the Scotland in Focus unit. Assessment is ongoing throughout the course instead of a final exam.

Pupils complete four units: Employability, Customer Service, Tourism in Scotland, and Tourism in the UK and Worldwide. Pupils will develop skills for life learning and work. Assessment is ongoing throughout the course instead of a final exam.

Pupils will complete this course through the Humanities and Science Faculties. They will complete the mandatory Crime in the Community unit, as well as two other units e.g. History of Criminology, Forensic Science, and Crime Scenes. Assessment is ongoing throughout the course instead of a final exam.
